

CULTURE VULTURE

WHAT'S ON IN THE ARTS SCENE

LIGHT, SHADOW, TWILIGHT AND NIGHT

Want to learn to capture the zesty colours and striking scenes that Chennai and Mahabalipuram have to offer? Join photographer David H Wells as he leads a photography workshop about incredible India. 11 to 16 December, registration closes 15 October.

ELEMENTAL SHIFTS

Artist Valerie Ng showcases her latest work of oil paintings and papier-mâché, as she reflects on the four elements of earth – its force and unpredictability – in this exhibition. Ng is also conducting a workshop on creating art out of junk. Till 7 October, www.substation.org

FASHION, FOOD AND FOLLIES

From corporate life as a lawyer to the next up-and-coming artist, Mariska Meijers will be showcasing her artwork in this solo exhibition. Besides her paintings of Baroque furniture and Chinese porcelain, Meijers also dabbles in creating brightly coloured cushions, bookmarks and cards. 1 to 11 October, Originals, Gillman Village, 7 Lock Road.

DON'T MISS

BROADWAY 4 SUAKUS

Here's the local version of the ... For Dummies series, but on stage and possibly with jazz hands. Jonathan Lim directs this gregarious revue designed to bring Broadway to the masses in an utterly Singaporean way. From 15 October, The Hall, The Arts House. Tickets from $28, 6332-6919, tickets@toph.com.sg